Introduction to the history of Ancient India Extracts from this document... Introduction Introduction A&T offer a wide range of different types of courses to allow you to expand your knowledge and take part in all of the educational opportunities available. Our courses are now recognised as "the University course" by the Department for Education and the Skills Funding Agency and are free to attend. There are no fees for a degree. We are now offering courses that are recognised by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of England and Wales (ICAEW). Students can take credit, work towards a degree or take a part time course. Some courses are for longer periods, as a degree. The courses will provide you with the skills and knowledge you need to get the job you want, increase your confidence, enter the world of work and get on in life. Will the work be of value to me? Extracts from this document... Introduction ∝ Aims ∝ The course involves in-depth study of the history of India from the earliest times to the current day. The course will provide students with the skills and knowledge they need to get the job they want, increase their confidence, enter the world of work and get on in life. 'I' believe it to be an excellent choice for anyone who wants to know more about India and wishes to gain some of the skills needed to work in India or elsewhere. 'B' believes that it is a good option for people who are looking for an interesting and rewarding academic course. 'B' also believed it to be a good choice for people who are considering a career in foreign languages. 'B' felt that this course was useful for gaining confidence and independence. The instructor enjoys this course and has had much success with his students. HEALTH AND SAFETY AT WORK COURSE SPECIFICATION (individual route) For which you will need a starting level of 220 for Upper Division (and 200 for Lower) or equivalent. To be eligible for this course a candidate must have not achieved the specified level in a previous unit of the course. This unit is over a 1 year period. Topic: Health and Safety at Work Unit F: Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) Introduction Owing to the length of this course it is scheduled in a number of day and evening meetings. Some of the meetings are held in Uses a theory of hermeneutics to constructively explore the meaning of a text, to understand
