a.k.a. Mr. Jobyjan A personal letter to fans of Deck of Ashes Firstly, I would like to thank every single person who has bought this album. In addition to the money I will make, it's just a good feeling knowing that people support what I do. It encourages me to keep doing it, and it's been one of my best experiences ever writing a score that I'm proud to be associated with. However, I'm also disappointed to let you know that I am unable to make all of you the champions of my score in the music world. I went through a lot of trouble to get you this thing, and I was always planning on making it available for people. Unfortunately, I made some mistakes which I haven't been able to fix yet, so I'm sharing it with you guys when I can. But, the rest of the time it'll be in-store only. I should add that whenever you bring a friend, they get half off of the album. So, if you feel like you'd like to introduce this to a friend, do so. If you do like what you hear, there is a donation of £3.14 available for you to use toward this record. Each of you could contribute towards the making of more records for me to do! It's really important to me that you like what you hear, so if you can afford to buy the music, then do so! The more you buy, the more people will be able to enjoy these scores! Only buy this if you really like me or love horror movies. The complete album will be put up for sale at the end of the month, but you're stuck with me for now, so enjoy this music and enjoy the darker side of me! I am not the least bit
